Nobelpharma

About Nobelpharma

Nobelpharma America, LLC is the U.S. subsidiary of a Japan-based pharmaceutical company dedicated to addressing unmet medical needs. Established in 2019 and headquartered in Bethesda, Maryland, the company focuses on developing innovative drugs and medical devices for patients with rare and underserved conditions.

Driven by a strong “patients first” philosophy, Nobelpharma prioritizes diseases that may be overlooked due to the small number of patients affected or other challenges. The company is committed to contributing to society by developing and delivering essential drugs and medical devices where they are needed most. Its mission is:

“Contribute to medical care by developing, manufacturing and delivering essential medicines that other companies might not pursue.”

Founded in Japan in 2003, Nobelpharma has built a strong track record in developing First-in-Class and Best-in-Class therapies. In Japan, the company has obtained multiple approvals for the manufacture and sale of new drugs, achieving a success rate in just over a decade that is comparable to large pharmaceutical companies—an achievement that reflects its distinctive corporate philosophy and focused approach.

Looking ahead, Nobelpharma continues to evolve by advancing innovative treatments and expanding its global footprint, with ongoing efforts to launch products in additional regions, including the United States and Europe. Through these initiatives, the company remains committed to improving access to therapies for patients with rare and neglected diseases worldwide.
