Call for Abstracts:

We warmly invite healthcare professionals, nursing practitioners, midwives, researchers, academicians, industry experts, and students in the field of nursing and midwifery to participate in the 4th Global Summit on Nursing and Midwifery and submit their abstracts highlighting innovative research, clinical advancements, patient care practices, and emerging healthcare technologies. Whether your work stems from academic institutions, hospitals, healthcare organizations, or industry, this summit offers a valuable platform to present your contributions to a global audience and engage in meaningful scientific exchange. A sample abstract template is available on the Abstract Submission page of the conference website. All accepted abstracts will be included in the Conference Extended Abstract Book, which will be published online and shared with participants during the event. Join us in shaping the future of nursing and midwifery by showcasing your impactful research and clinical expertise at Nursing 2027!
